2014-2015 season

Music & Theatre

Opening Night

Galas

The CWC Theatre Department is offering something new and exciting for the 2014-2015 season!

Opening night performances of our three major productions will conclude with a gala celebration. Chat with the actors, partake of extraordinary sweets, enjoy live music, and join in a toast to the cast. Be our guest, be our guest. Order tickets for the opening night performances, and join the festivities. *Opening night performances in the program will be highlighted in red.

Buy your Tickets in Advance - discover the benefits!

This year the Art Center Box Office begins rewarding patrons who buy their tickets in advance. Tickets for individual theatre department productions are now $2 less if you purchase them ahead of time. Get the seat you want, avoid standing in line at the ticket window, and save money. Buy your tickets in advance!

Sign up for the E-Brochure

In the future we would like to move away from printing the brochure and instead provide an electronic version! You can help make this happen and ensure that you continue to receive the Art Center brochure by e-mailing the Box Office at tickets@cwc.edu with the subject, E-Brochure!

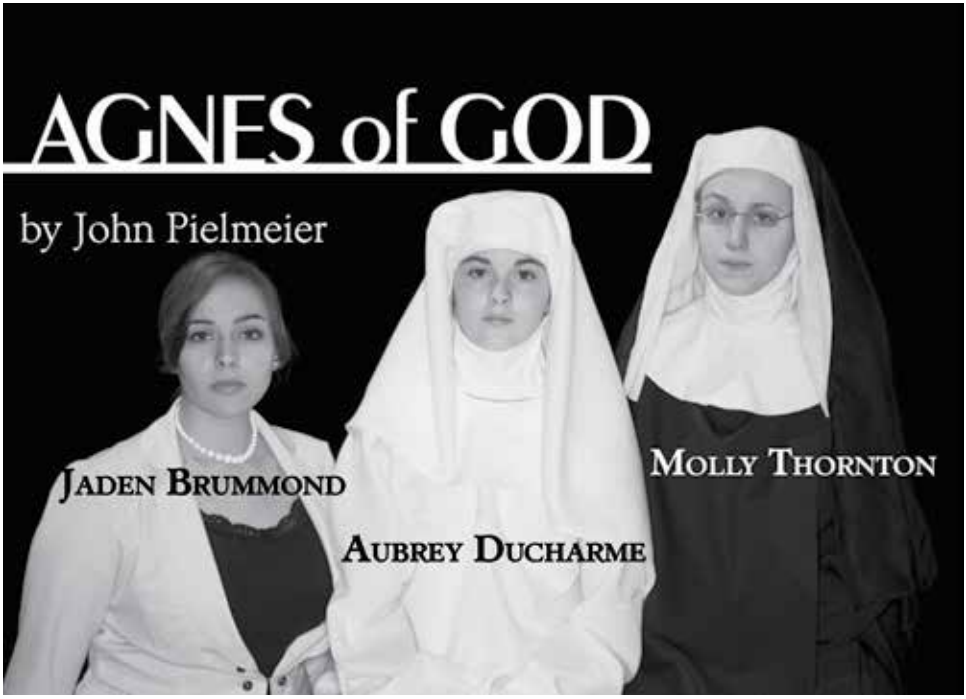
{ September }

John Pielmeier's

Agnes of God

Friday, September 5, 7:30 p.m.
Saturday, September 6, 7:30 p.m.
Sunday, September 7, 2:30 p.m.
Dance Studio • Rated PG-13

Agnes is an innocent, intensely spiritual, novice nun. When she is discovered with a dead newborn in her convent quarters, she is charged with manslaughter. A court appointed psychiatrist investigates her case, while her Mother Superior struggles to protect Agnes from the outside world. Is it an immaculate conception? An electrifying three-character drama about the conflict between faith and reason.



{ September }

The Craft Brothers

Sheridan, Wyoming natives and siblings Mitch, Dave, and JT Craft perform their own unique blend of cowboy music, dancing, and irrepressible humor. Bring along your lawn chairs and your whole family to enjoy this all-ages fun fest. This event is sponsored by Arts in Action and is free to the public.

Saturday, September 6, 7:30 p.m.
Intertribal Education and Community Center Patio

4 (Or More) in 24

The Inequality Edition

For the fourth consecutive year, cast and crew won't leave the Art Center for a full day and night as they prepare for 4 (or More) in 24. It's a theatre marathon, in which multiple casts rehearse at least four original, short theatre pieces and then immediately perform them. This year all of the productions have the theme of inequality.

Wednesday, September 3, 6:30 p.m.,

Adapted by Robert Owens, Wilton E. Hall, Jr. and William A Miles, Jr.

Oceania is a totalitarian society in which 2+2=5 if The Party says it does, love is forbidden, and Big Brother is always watching. When Winston and Julia fall in love and plan a rebellion against Big Brother, they risk being caught by the Thought Police and sent to Room 101, where the worst thing in the world awaits. An exciting adaptation of one of the world's greatest novels.

Halloween Halls of Horror

Walk a gauntlet of jack-o-lanterns and take a guided tour through the Art Center with all the lights turned off. Around every corner lurk ghoulies, ghosties, long-legged beasties, and things that go bump in the night. Halloween fun for all ages.

Thursday, October 30, 7:00-10:00 p.m.
Friday, October 31, 7:00–10:00 p.m.

Rodgers and Hammerstein's

The King and I

Music by Richard Rodgers, Book and Lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II

In 1862, East meets West when a British widow becomes governess to the many children of the King of Siam. The king wants to be modern but is unwilling to give up some traditions--including polygamy and slavery. A stunning blend of comedy and drama, this legendary musical overflows with hit numbers, including Hello, Young Lovers; Getting to Know You; We Kiss in a Shadow; and the extraordinary ballet, The Small House of Uncle Thomas.

Athens Guitar Duo

The Athens Guitar Duo has been consistently entertaining audiences for the past nine years, offering exquisitely crafted performances, each presented with a delicacy and creativity only to be found among the finest of chamber ensembles. They have opened up the world of the guitar to new audiences and have promoted the works of both modern and traditional composers with a youthfulness and freshness that makes the music of those composers come alive. Each member plays a guitar built by the master luthier, Kenny Hill; these include an extremely rare 11-string guitar that extends the ensemble's range.

Single Reed Celebration

Join us for CWC's third annual Single Reed Celebration, presented by the CWC Music Department and Arts in Action. This two-day event features performances, clinics, demonstrations, and master classes presented by world-class performers of the saxophone and clarinet. This year's celebration will feature a guest artist solo concert, Friday at 7:30 p.m. along with performances by the CWC Community Concert Band. Tickets to this performance are available for $5 at the CWC Box Office and Mammoth Music.

On Saturday, March 21, join us for an enjoyable day of clinics and presentations geared toward assisting rising saxophone and clarinet players. There will be a final gala recital at 4 p.m. presented by CWC faculty and guest artists. Saturday's events are free and open to the public.

Metales M5 Mexican Brass

Metals M5, the brass quintet from Mexico, have a knack for high energy, shows that embrace humor, showmanship and musical talent. Since its founding in 2005 in Morelia, Michoacán, the band has been playing a wide variety of music without regard to genre. The band combines fine classical chamber music, non-stop audience interaction, and their inimitable Latin American charm, for a unique musical-theatrical concert experience that is not to be missed!

Tickets are $10 for students and $15 for adults, and available at the CWC Box Office and Mammoth Music. This event presented by Arts in Action.
